

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

CATALOGUE

STATE LIBRARY

OF IOWA.

The Library

PREFACE.

THIS catalogue has its origin in a desire to give to the public, at the earliest day possible, a ready means of indicating the books contained in the library.

No printed catalogue of this library has been published since 1872.

The work was begun in June, 1888, and was placed in the hands of the printer in February 1889. All accessions as late as February have been included, and during the printing all new books have been incorporated as far as possible.

The library contained, the first of February, 33,546 volumes, so that as nearly as can be estimated about 34,000 volumes are included.

In order to give the greatest information in the smallest space, the form of a classified list mentioning a book but once was deemed advisable.

The classifications adopted are the systems used in the San Francisco Free Public Library by F. B. Perkins, and the California State Library by T. H. Wallis.

An effort has been made to answer, as far as possible, what is believed to be the demands of those most likely to use the books in the library. In the prosecution of this design the catalogue has been divided into two parts; the first including miscellaneous books and State papers; the second, law.

As a general rule, in part first, each subdivision has been arranged alphabetically by authors and editors. When the name of the author of a book was unknown, the book has been placed in the alphabetical arrangement under the word of the title which seems most likely to be generally remembered. Bound periodicals are arranged under the first word of the title; laws, public documents and geological surveys are under the headings of their respective countries and States.

The subsequent biennial reports of the librarian will be arranged in the form of supplements to this catalogue, containing the additions for each year, in order that a complete printed list of books in the library may be at all times accessible.

One of the most interesting objects in the library (and for that matter in the Capitol building) is the collection of manuscripts, autograph letters, engraved portraits and photographs presented to the State by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Aldrich, of Webster City, Hamilton county, Iowa. Many of the manuscripts are rare and of great value, while all will increase in appreciation with the lapse of time. While it is still growing it is not deemed practicable to set forth its contents in this catalogue, the more so from the fact that frequent changes in its arrangement have been found necessary.

In preparation of the catalogue I have been efficiently aided by my assistants, Miss Annetta Larimer and Miss Ida Wetmore.

It is hoped that this catalogue will prove of great utility to the large and constantly increasing number of those who make use of the books in the library.

MRS. MARY H. MILLER,
Librarian.

DES MOINES, April 9, 1889.

NOTES.

1. Volume 1 of Dallas contains only colonial and State cases, and can hardly be catalogued as a supreme court report. Mr. Otto has, however, labeled his first report as "91 U. S.," and has evidently considered 1 Dallas as the first of the series. Strictly speaking, there is no United States report properly entitled volume 1, though 2 Dallas is properly volume 2. *

Volumes 2, 3, and 4 Dallas contain, also, decisions of the circuit courts, and of Pennsylvania courts.

2. A volume entitled 17 Peters is sometimes cited, but all the cases contained in it are to be found in 1 Howard, though the statements of cases and syllabic differ. Hon. Henry Baldwin, in a volume entitled "A General View of the Origin and Nature of the Constitution and Government of the United States," and labeled "Baldwin's Constitutional Views," has published and explained his concurring opinions in four cases reported in 11 Peters.

3. It will be observed that the period covered by Clifford's reports laps over on that covered by Holmes, but the decisions are not duplicated. Clifford's reports contain only the decisions of Judge Clifford, while Holmes contains only decisions of other judges.

4. Paine also contains two district court cases.

5. Peters and Washington's reports contain the decisions of Judge Washington, and really from one series. They are edited by Mr. Peters.

6. This volume also contains one case decided in 1829.

7. Brockenbrough's reports are labeled "Marshall's decisions, by Brockenbrough," and are often cited as Marshall's decisions. The more common and better citation is "Brock," as there are several reporters by the name of Marshall.

8. Taney's decisions were reported by J. W. Campbell.

9. Chase's decisions were reported by B. T. Johnson, and are labeled outside, "Chase's decisions—Johnson's reports." The proper citation is Chase. An appendix to this volume contains the constitution and several acts of the "Confederate States of America."

10. Hughes, Bond, Flippin and Bissell contain both circuit and district court cases.

11. Hempstead contains three classes of cases: Those in the United States superior court for the Territory of Arkansas, 1820-1836; those in the United States district court for the district of Arkansas, 1836-1849; and those in the United States circuit court for the district of Arkansas, 1839-1855. It will be found cataloged under circuit, district and Arkansas Reports, though there is but one volume. When it was published Arkansas was in the Ninth Circuit, but owing to the change made in 1866-7, it is now found in the Eighth.

12. Deady contains cases decided while California and Oregon comprised the Tenth Circuit, and afterward when both States were included in the Ninth. There is but one volume.

13. Deady, Sawyer and Abbott all contain both circuit and district court cases.

14. From 1801 to 1863 the District of Columbia had established in its borders a circuit court, which, though practically only local, had powers equal to those of the other Federal circuit courts, and was known as such, and its reports are therefore cataloged here. In 1863, the circuit court was abolished, and a supreme court of the district established in its stead. Its powers correspond with the supreme courts of the States, and its reports will be found cataloged among the State reports under the title District of Columbia.

15. Abbott, Bissell, Bond, Deady, Flippin, Hempstead, Hughes, McLean, Paine, Jr., and Sawyer, contain both circuit and district court cases, and are also cataloged under the head of circuit courts.

16. R. D. Benedict reported the first six volumes alone, but was assisted on the last four by B. L. Benedict.

17. Davies was the first reporter of the decisions of Hon. Assun Ware, and the volume was early cited as Davies reports, but the later and better citation of the volume, formerly known as Davies, is 2 Ware.

NOTES.

¹ Clinton's digest comes down to 1860. The three volumes of Wait are a continuation coming down to 1868. Volumes 4 and 5 of Wait are supplementary to the other three, and come down to 1875.

² Keys' reports are sometimes cited as 40, 41, 42, and 43 N. Y., and contain cases not reported in the regular series. The same cases are found in Abbott's court of appeals decisions.

³ The first six volumes of Hun cover the same ground as Thompson and Cook's reports, but the latter are unofficial.

⁴ This volume is entitled, Volume 43 New York superior court reports. There was evidently an intent to interpolate it in the series then course of publication by Jones and Spencer. The latter, however, paid no attention to the volume, but numbered their eleventh volume 43 also. To prevent confusion the citation by the reporter's name is desirable.

Patterson to the United States Senate, 1877-78.....Columbia, 1878

NOTES.

¹ No reporters' names appear on the title pages of these volumes. Treadway and Mill were publishers only.

² Cheves' Law and Cheves' Equity are each entitled volume 1, though no others were published. They are bound together, with separate paging, and labeled Cheves' Law and Equity Reports.

³ Volume 13, Richardson's Law, and volume 12, Richardson's Equity, are bound together, the cases commingling and the paging consecutive. The Equity series has, therefore, the appearance of one volume having been omitted.

⁴ The distinction between law and equity were abolished by an act passed in 1870. The published volumes of decisions since November term of 1868 having been known as South Carolina Reports.

LAW TERMS.

The Law Terms were originally timed by the Church Festivals, from which they take their names.

By Act 1, William IV., it was provided that in A. D. 1831, and afterward, the terms shall commence and end as follows:

Hilary Term.....	January 11 to January 31
Paschal or Easter Term.....	April 15 to May 8
Trinity Term.....	May 22 to June 12
Michaelmas Term.....	November 2 to November 25

By the judicature act of 1873, the terms above mentioned have been abolished as to the administration of justice.

"The division of the legal year into terms shall be abolished, so far as relates to the administration of justice; and there shall no longer be terms applicable to any sitting or business of the high court of justice, or of the court of appeal, or of any commissioners to whom any jurisdiction may be assigned under this act; but in all other cases in which, under the law now existing, the terms into which the legal year is divided, are used as a measure for determining the time at or within which any act is required to be done, the same may continue to be referred to for the same or the like purpose, unless and until provision is otherwise made by any lawful authority." (Judicature acts, 1873-75, p. 28.)

THE LAW REPORTS.

The publication of the Law Reports was commenced in 1866, under the direction of an "Incorporated council of law reporting." They were first bound, as indicated in the first table of this Law Reports, under eleven different titles; but in 1875 the arrangement of the reports was changed.

The cases included under the three titles — "English and Irish Appeal Cases," "Scotch and Divorce Appeal Cases," and "Privy Council Appeals"—were thereafter published under the title, "Appeal Cases." The cases included under the titles, "Chancery Appeal Cases," and "Equity Cases," were published under the title, "Chancery Divisions." "Crown Cases Reversed" were merged into "Queen's Bench Division," and the "Admiralty and Ecclesiastical Reports," was merged in the "Probate Division." This left the Law Reports in six divisions; and they continued to be published so until 1880, when another change was made. Both the "Common Pleas Division" and the "Exchequer Division," after the publication of Volume 5, in 1880, were merged in the "Queen's Bench Division," so that now there are but four publications: "Chancery Division," "Queen's Bench Division," "Probate Division," and "Appeal Cases."

Chancery.

In addition to the reports named in the table, Moore, Dyer, Godbolt, Gouldsbrough, Popham, Part 2 of Ventris, Pollexfen, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10, Modern, Salkeld, Fortescue, Comyns, Strange, Fitzgibbon, Willes, Wilson, and W. Blackstone contain some cases in chancery, the number is too small to warrant the classification of these reports under the head of chancery.

Common Pleas.

Most of the early King's Bench Reports contain some common pleas cases. Many of the common pleas reports of the present century contain cases in the exchequer chamber. Registration cases are also bound with them, the common pleas being an appellate court from the decisions of the revising barristers relating to registration of voters.
